

SOLVAXIS: YOUR ERP PARTNER

SOLVAXIS: YOUR ERP PARTNER

Based in Sonceboz in the Jura Bernois, SolvAxis employs 125 people at the headquarters and their sites in Gland (VD), Baden (AG), Saint-Gall (SG), Annecy (France) and Shanghai (China).

The SolvAxis mission is to give midmarket companies, communes, and public administrations high performance, reliable, high quality Enterprise Resource Planning solutions. SolvAxis conceives, develops, and distributes its integrated enterprise software application, ProConcept ERP to Mid-sized businesses and industries in the sales, service, and industrial sectors. In addition to its development activities, SolvAxis also ensures the distribution and implementation of 3rd party software applications in order to answer specific customer requirements.

"As far as our old data processing went, we didn't know which foot to stand on. The consultants from SolvAxis immediately lit our way with their precious advice. Thanks to their insight, we received a clear indication as to which orientation to give our information."

Patrice Carrel, Administrative manager, Ulysse Nardin

"Our expectations have been met. The accomplishment of our ERP project has made our internal communication far simpler and efficient"

Séverin Augsburgberger, Director, Theramed

SolvAxis is the specialized partner for mid market businesses for ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning), BPM (Business Process Management) and CRM (Customer Relationship Management) oriented solutions.

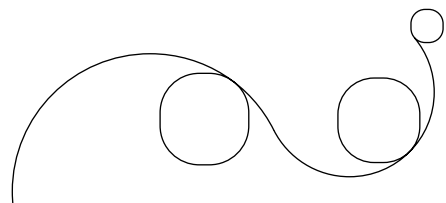

OUR SOLUTIONS

ERP	For integrated management of your company resources.
CRM	Optimize your customer management
BPM	Improve your functional process efficiency and quality with Business Process Modeling

SOLVAXIS HAS SEAMLESS ERP SOLUTIONS THAT COVER THE FOLLOWING FUNCTIONAL AREAS:

The SolvAxis vision is to offer a wide range of products and services, and extend its activities to other geographical regions.

“SolvAxis and its partners ensure the piloting of ERP projects, training and usage, tracking, and software maintenance, thanks to its experienced consulting teams.”

OVER 20 YEARS OF RENOWN COMPETENCE.

Even the best software solutions have trouble adding value to a company if the employees don't know how to make the most of the product and have little technical know how.

SolvAxis customers, amongst which feature several flagship Swiss companies, benefit from richly functional management solutions that give the best fit to their current market needs in terms of agility and technology.

SolvAxis and its partners ensure that your ERP projects are successfully completed, the training, the follow up and application maintenance, are taken care of by our experienced consulting team. Our consultants are appreciated as much for their company management expertise as for their functional experience. They have all the skills required to bring in even the most ambitious projects on time.

As SolvAxis' privileged partner you are guaranteed our availability, competency, and efficiency when managing the projects that you confide to us.

“We have access to extremely competent, committed consultants. They drove the project.”

Christian Namy, ERP manager, Audemars Piguet & Cie SA
